invited at 1:30, and a feature of unusual interest was a talk by Capt. Yoshitake Uyeda, naval attaché of the Japanese embassy, on "The Early History of Japan."

Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood will entertain a large company of guests at a dance tonight in compliment to her niece, Miss Antoinette Graves, who is staying with her. While many young people will be numbered among the guests, diplomatic, official, and resident society will also be generously represented.

Mrs. Harold Walker will give a dinner tonight for her sister, Mrs. Edward Pinkerton, of Chicago, and her guests. She will take her guests afterward to Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood's ball.

Miss Hulda White, of England, is visiting Mrs. William A. Slater.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson will be hosts at dinner this evening.

The third and final dance of the series arranged by the Navy and Marines Corps, and originally set for February 11, will be given this evening, because of the early date of the beginning of Lent. The large ballroom at the Willard will be appropriately decorated for this last dance, which will bring together a large number of guests. The series of entertainments has been so popular that it has been decided to make the dances a regular feature of each year's social events in Washington.

Admiral and Mrs. Robert E. Coonts, Gen. J. A. LeJeune, and Mrs. R. H. Lane will receive the guests tonight.

GALA PERFORMANCE AT POLI'S.

The first showing in Washington of David W. Griffith's film, "Way Down East," at Poli's Theater last evening, was a gala event, and brought out a notable attendance. Box parties were numerous, but were not entertained in boxes—if one may be permitted an Irishism—as they are the least comfortable place in the house from which to view a picture.

The Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Meredith entertained perhaps the largest and most distinguished crowd of the evening, guests who had dined first with them. In their party were the Ambassador of Spain and Mme. de Llanos, the Ambassador of Peru and Mme. Feset, the Minister of Cuba and Mme. de Cespedes, Mr. and Mrs. Gist Blair, Judge and Mrs. Charles C. McChord, Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, Mrs. John Allen Dougherty, Mrs. George W. Peck, Gen. George Squier, and David W. Griffith, the producer of "Way Down East."

Prominent in the audience were the Argentine Ambassador and Mme. Leireton, the Brazilian Ambassador, the Minister of War and Mrs. Baker, the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson, Miss Sidney Burleson, the Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Carlier, the Undersecretary of State and Mrs. Dancy, the Speaker of the House and Mrs. Gillett, Congressman Joseph Canon, Congressman and Mrs. James R. Mann, Senator and Mrs. Calder, Senator and Mrs. Borah, Senator and Mrs. Owen, Gen. Peyton March, U. S. A.; Mr. and Mrs. Washington Pezet, Mrs. James Carroll Frazer, Mrs. Alexander Fitzhugh Macgruder, Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Day, Mr. and Mrs. Huston Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Allen, Congressman and Mrs. Henry T. Rainey, Congressman and Mrs. Ira E. Copley, Congressman and Mrs. Mondell, Miss Mondell, Mrs. Charles B. Henderson, and Mrs. E. F. Andrews, who entertained several friends; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Caldwell, Major and Mrs. Sherman Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Tiller, and Major and Mrs. Oliver Newman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond entertained at dinner, followed by dancing, last evening in compliment to Miss Katherine Mackay, of New York, who is visiting in Washington. There were forty-two guests at dinner, additional ones coming in later to dance.

Mrs. Hammond will leave Washington on Thursday for Boston, where she will visit for an indefinite time.

The Third Secretary of the Italian Embassy and Mme. Celestia, who gave a farewell dinner last evening for the Charge d'Affaires of Italy and Mme. Brambilla, had among their guests the Third Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Merle-Smith, Mrs. Grafton Minor, Rear Admiral Long and Signor Mariani, of the Italian embassy.

N. H. Lajovary, charge d'affaires of the Rumanian legation, has gone to New York to meet Prince Bibesco, the newly appointed Rumanian minister, and Princess Bibesco, who arrived in New York Sunday from England.

Mrs. Armistead Davis has as her guest, at her home, 1302 Eighteenth street, her brother, Henry H. Armistead, of New York. Mrs. Davis returned recently from Atlantic City.

PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY BALL.

More than 500 guests attended the reception given by the Pennsylvania Society, the oldest State society in Washington, at the Willard Hotel last evening, and it was without doubt the most successful ball in the history of the organization. The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall were present for a little while and many other notable guests were included among the guests.

Congressman M. Clyde Kelly, president of the society, presided over the revels, which began with a program of music and speeches and wound up with dancing. The receiving line included Mrs. Mitchell Palmer, Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, Mrs. Howard Heeside, Mrs. Joseph B. Showalter, Mrs. Virginia White Speel, Mrs. T. Lincoln Townsend, Mrs. Edwin A. Niess, Miss Engman, and the following ladies of the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress: Mrs. Guy E. Campbell, Mrs. Thomas S. Crago, Mrs. Willis J. Hulings, Mrs. Evan B. Jones, Mrs. M. Clyde Kelly, Mrs. Samuel A. Kendall, Mrs. Louis T. McFadden, Mrs. John M. Rose, Mrs. Milton W. Shreve and Mrs. A. H. Walters.

Musical numbers were given by William T. Pierson, who sang his own compositions, and by Mrs. Melville D. Lindsay, accompanied on the violin by Mr. Lindsay.

The address of the evening was made by Gifford Pinchot, commissioner of forestry of Pennsylvania and former chief forester of the United States.

Commander and Mrs. Lewis W. Jennings gave a bridge party last evening at their home in Belmont street. Among the guests at the five tables were the Commanders, Mrs. J. M. Doyle, Commander and Mrs. E. M. Stanley, Commander and Mrs. McKay, Capt. and Mrs. Vlack, Roger Bickers, Mrs. Mary Edelin Grimsley, Commander and Mrs. William S. Zane and Capt. and Mrs. Freeman.

Mrs. John Walker Holcombe entertained at a card party yesterday afternoon, one of a series she is giving. Additional guests came in for tea and Mrs. Elphaleth Andrews and Mrs. H. C. Stewart presided at the tea table.

An interesting audience was present last night at the Shubert-Garrick Theater to witness the performance of "What's Your Number?" a farce starring Marie Carroll.

Ralph Graves was among those entertaining box parties and had among his guests, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Morrill Chamberlain, and Miss Katherine Stover.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tyler Page entertained a box party and John La Gorce also had guests with him.

Mrs. R. R. Govin has invitations out for a luncheon on February 17 in compliment to Mrs. Geddies.

Mrs. John Cameron Hawkins will be hostess at dinner on Friday evening.

Mrs. Jesse Lee Webb, chairman of the patronesses' committee for the card party to be given at Wardman Park Inn, tomorrow afternoon, for the benefit of the Eastern Dispensary and Casualty Hospital, has announced as additional members of her committee Mrs. William Stock, Mrs. Mary Wright Johnson, Mrs. Easterday, Mrs. Sallie Cullen Spring, and Mrs. E. Keating. So great has been the demand for tickets that the number of tables at the inn had to be increased to accommodate a thousand guests. Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Lady Geddes, and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, who have identified themselves with the worthy charity as the leading patronesses, have aided in assuring success to the entertainment. The party will be held under the auspices of the board of hospital managers, of which Mrs. M. J. Vaughan is president. The chairman of the card party committee is Mrs. Daniel Webster Prentiss.

Congressman and Mrs. Luther W. Mott entertained at dinner last evening at the Cafe St. Marks.

The Cornell Alumnae here are giving a dance tonight at 2400 Sixteenth street for the benefit of the "French Scholarship Fund." As Miss Maurer, the present holder of the scholarship, is known to many of the alumnae, who have a high regard for the brilliant young student of electrical engineering, and who sympathize with her desire to continue her father's work, unusual interest is being taken in this dance.

The committee in charge of the arrangements consists of the Misses Jean Stephenson, Abbie Tingley, Grace Bennett and Mrs. Harrison Dixon.

Among the patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. James Parmalee, Congressman and Mrs. Allan Houghton, the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Hall, Col. and Mrs. Sherman Moreland, Col. and Mrs. Albert Truby, Col. and Mrs. C. A. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Storey, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Thom, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. White, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Tingley, Mrs. David C. White and Miss Janet Smith.

G. W. U. GLEE CLUB CONCERT.

The George Washington University Glee Club will make its debut at a joint concert with the Columbia University Musical Club this evening at the Washington Hotel. George Washington will have forty young men in the concert and Columbia—with a Glee Club and Mandolin Club—will have forty-five young men and thirty stringed instruments. The concert will be followed by dancing.

The patrons and patronesses will be President William Miller of George Washington University and Mrs. Collier, Mrs. Mabel T. Boardman, Admiral W. T. Brownson, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davis, William P. Eno, Mrs. Dixon Fahnestock, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Glover, Jr., Thomas J. Hopkins, Judge Martin A. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lerner, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Lerner, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Morse, Newbold Noyes, Theodore Noyes, C. C. Perkins, and Dr. and Mrs. William S. Washburn.

COLUMBIAN WOMEN'S BENEFIT.

Mrs. Mitchell Carroll, chairman of the entertainment committee has arranged a charming program for the meeting of the Columbian Women this afternoon. The guest of honor, Mrs. Annette Adams, Assistant Attorney General, will speak on some phases of her work in the Department of Justice. Miss Elizabeth Peet, president of the society, will receive, assisted by the following hostesses: Mrs. Robert W. Howell, Mrs. B. Rosa, Mrs. E. B. Townsend and Mrs. Charles W. Richardson. Miss Elizabeth Wilson and Miss Ruby Nevins will preside at the punch bowl.

Through the kindness of Mr. Crandall, proprietor, and Mr. Eastwood, manager, the Knickerbocker Theater has been loaned to the Columbian Women for their benefit performance tomorrow afternoon, when the proceeds are to be given to the Columbian Women's Scholarship Fund.

Society in general is taking a great interest in this function, as is shown by the following women as patronesses: Mrs. Charles W. Bell, Mrs. Douglas Birnie, Mrs. William Miller Collier, Miss Mabel T. Boardman, Mrs. Gilbert H. Grosvenor, Miss Charlotte Harding, Mrs. Percival Hall, Mrs. Louis Hertz, Mrs. Edward H. Everett, Mrs. A. Lerner, Mrs. Thomas Sidwell, Mrs. Charles H. Stockton, Mrs. John E. Baker, Mrs. Walter E. Tuckerman, Mrs. Charles Warren, Miss Mary

PIMPY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

For Indigestion

Mi-O-Na is Guaranteed to Promptly Relieve Stomach Distress.

People go on suffering from little stomach troubles for years and imagine they have a serious disease. They over-eat and force on the stomach a lot of extra work. But they never think that the stomach needs extra help to do extra work.

If these people would take a Mi-O-Na Tablet with or after meals it would be a great big help to the stomach in its strain of over-work.

Mi-O-Na helps your tired-out stomach to do its work and banishes the cause. No matter what you eat or drink Mi-O-Na will sweeten your sour stomach and stop gas belching in five minutes. The heaviness disappears and the stomach is greatly aided in its work of digestion. And Mi-O-Na does it promptly relieves all distress but if taken regularly will banish indigestion. People's Drug Stores and druggists everywhere sell Mi-O-Na on the money back plan.
